

QUESTION OF CASH

Memphis Authorities Will Not Send For Rodgers.

BANK REFUSED TO "PUT UP"

Prisoner Was Not Released. However, and Will Be Tried With Mrs. J. T. Anderson on Warrants Sworn Out by Woman's Husband.

Chief of Police Johnson last night received a telegram from the Memphis, Tenn., chief, stating that the Memphis authorities had decided not to send for John Rodgers, the sailor, who is being held in jail here on the charge of cashing a forged check for $87 at the Germania Savings Bank of Memphis. It seems that the Memphis authorities refused to send for Rodgers unless the bank would deposit the amount of money necessary to defray the expenses of the officer making the trip. The bank refused to put up the money, so the prisoner will not be taken back.

Rodgers was not released, however, as he will be tried in the police court this morning on the warrant sworn out by J. T. Anderson. Anderson alleges that the sailor ran away with his young wife and lived with her for some time.

A warrant has also been issued against Mrs. Anderson and she will be tried with the sailor.

Mr. E. S. Robinson represents Anderson and Major J. H. Gilkerson has been retained to defend Rodgers.

COMING HERE FOR CUEL

CRUISER PENNSYLVANIA EXPECTED IN FEW DAYS.

New Vessel Is Going South to Join "Squadron—Minneapolis Headed This Way Too.

The new Cramp built armored cruiser or Pennsylvania, the fastest of the fleet of four new armored cruisers, is expected to come to this port in a few days to load bunker coal prior to sailing South to the Caribbean sea where she is to join the North Atlantic fleet, now stationed in these waters.

The vessel was recently commissioned at the League Island navy yard. It is expected that the additional men for the crew of the Pennsylvania will be transferred to her in Hampton Roads from the training ship Franklin.

The Colorado, the Pennsylvania's Cramp built sister ship loaded bunker coal here last week, sailing Sunday afternoon for Cuba.

Minneapolis Headed This Way.

The protected cruiser Minneapolis, formerly of the famous flying squadron, is bound to his port from Guantanamo to load bunker coal. The vessel has been in Southern waters for several weeks. She will probably be overhauled after she has loaded coal here upon her arrival.

Prairie at Tompkinsville.

The United States auxiliary cruiser Prairie has arrived at Tompkinsville from this port. The vessel loaded bunker coal here last week and after taking on several hundred landmen from the training station at Norfolk, proceeded South.

FOG HANGS OVER HARBOR.

Many Vessels at Anchor Awaiting Favorable Weather.

Few movements of ships were reported along the waterfront here yesterday, as the dense fog which hung over the harbor yesterday morning and a part of the afternoon prevented the eastwise ships from getting underway, and there is now a large fleet of schooners and barges anchored in the stream awaiting favorable weather conditions.

Loaded in a Hurry.

The British steamship Barnton, which arrived here Saturday from New York, sailed yesterday for Tampico with 2,797 tons of coal. The vessel was taken into the Chesapeake and Ohio coal piers early Monday morning and the work of dumping the coal into her holds was begun. After remaining at the pier for 24 hours, the Barnton was towed out in the stream and shortly after noon yesterday she turned her nose seaward and began her long journey to Mexico.

Marine Notes.

The Dutch steamship Amsteldyk, which cleared yesterday for Rotterdam will sail today with a general cargo of exports, including 38,890 bushels of corn and 630 head of live cattle, all valued at $74,334.50.

The schooner Miles M. Merry, which sailed from this port recently has been chartered for the coal trade between Baltimore or Hampton Roads to San Juan, at $1.65 per ton.

The schooner Alice May Davenport, which has been ashore at Dennis Flats, Mass., for the past two months, has been floated and her hull will be repaired. The schooner grounded while enroute from this port for Portland with a cargo of coal.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS.

Interesting Meeting of Literary Society is Planned.

The Newport News High School Literary Society will hold its regular bi-weekly meeting in the assembly hall of the High school building Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock and the members expect the meeting to be one of the most interesting of the season. The officers who were elected at the last meeting will be installed and other matters of importance will be raised upon.

An entertaining program, dealing entirely with the life and works of the great English poet, Tennyson, will be rendered by members of the society.

FIRE IN CHENEY'S HALL.

BUILDING CUTTED BY BLAZE OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN.

Dancers Saw the Light and Ran to the Engine House to Give the Alarm—Loss Comparatively Small.

Fire of unknown origin, gutted Cheney's hall, at the corner of Roanoke avenue and Twenty-seventh street, shortly after 9 o'clock last night.

The blaze was first discovered by several persons who were attending a dance in a building just across Roanoke avenue from the hall. They hurried to the headquarters of the East End fire company, about two blocks away, and turned in the alarm. The East End ladders were soon on the scene, but the fire had been burning for some time before it was discovered and when the firemen arrived the upper part of the building was ablaze and fiery tongues were leaping from the windows.

Soon after their arrival the firemen had two streams of water playing on the building and after a stubborn fight of nearly an hour they succeeded in extinguishing the flames before the lower part of the structure was destroyed.

Shortly after the firemen began to fight the blaze the rear of the building collapsed and sparks and burning embers shot heavenward, falling upon the crowd which had been attracted to the scene.

The building is a two story frame structure erected for Undertaker Cheney about eight years ago, and it was one of the landmarks of East End. The building had not been occupied since a year ago, when it was used as a school, it being rented by the board of school trustees as an auxiliary school to the two schools in East End. At the beginning of this session, however, the pupils who had occupied the building, were transferred to the brick school buildings.

The damage will amount to several hundred dollars and it is understood that there was no insurance.

Literary Entertainment.

The literary department of the Grace M. E. church, in North End, has arranged for an entertainment to be given tomorrow night in honor of Miss Fannie Crosby, the hymn writer. A sketch of her life and several of her poems will be read. Besides this a number of her hymns will be sung as solos, duets, quartettes and choruses. The public is invited to attend.

"Carved" His Wife.

John Treat, a negro, will be tried in the police court this morning on the charge of stabbing his wife. The fight occurred at the home of the pair in Dawson City Monday and Treat claims this his wife fell down stairs and cut her cheek.

READY TO COME HOME

Four Runaway Boys Tramped Into Richmond Last Night.

STARTED FOR SAN FRANCISCO

Negro Men Attacked the Youngsters and Ernest Koeker Had His Nose Broken—Left Their Homes Monday Night.

Fear of this city's prize bad boys, who left home Monday night, confiding to their evasive claims that they were going to make a "holoing" trip to "Frisco," fetched up at Richmond last night.

A special to the Daily Press, received about midnight read as follows:

"Bernard Alexander aged 17; John Maxfield, aged 12; Ernest Koeker, aged 12; and George Sanderson, aged 9 years, all of Newport News, tramped into this city tonight. They had been attacked by negro men, who broke Koeker's nose. The boys have decided to return to Newport News."

All of these youngsters are well known about town and this is not the first time they have figured in a scrape. Koeker has led an especially active life and has been in the police court on numerous occasions.

Alexander is the son of Archer C. Alexander, a caulder employed at the shipyard, who lives at Twenty-ninth street and Jefferson avenue.

Maxfield is an orphan who lives with Frederick Lochstamper, a machinist, at 534 Thirty-third street.

Koeker lives with his father, Herman Koeker, a fitter, at 608 Twenty-eighth street.

Sanderson lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sanderson, at 420 Twenty-seventh street.

All of the boys have been employed in the local telegraph offices.

Republican City Committee.

The Republican city committee met last night at the rooms of the Huntington Republican club, and appointed sub-committees consisting of five citizens of each ward, to assist in the spring campaign work.

Scrap in Bloodfield.

W. M. Dill, a negro from Hampton, is in jail charged with felonious assault. He was arrested late Monday night by Patrolman Woodward, just after a fight which occurred on Ivy avenue, as the result of a crap game alleged to have been played in Tom Hall's saloon. Dill is alleged to have stabbed another negro named Pleasant. The case will be tried in the police court this morning.

License to Marry.

License to marry was issued in the clerk's office of the Corporation Court yesterday to T. W. Turner and Mrs. Lizzie E. Hardy, both parties of this city.

Nervous Women

Their Sufferings Are Usually Due to Uterine Disorders Perhaps Unsuspected

A MEDICINE THAT CURES

Can we dispute the well-known fact that American women are nervous? How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly," or, "Don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in women is so close that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability. Spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps. Pain in the ovaries and between the shoulders. Loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia. A tendency to cry at the least provocation. All this points to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. M. E. Shotwell, of 103 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I cannot express the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration, backache, headache, loss of appetite. I could not sleep and would walk the floor almost every night."

"I had three doctors and got no better, and life was a burden. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has worked wonders for me."

"I am a well woman, my nervousness is all gone and my friends say I look ten years younger."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick and weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.
